helping each other to fight to end white supremacy and it's entanglement with the systemic racism of our system. I would love to invite you to a March and Rally one that will be an educational event. taking place at Hillhurst Ave & Franklin Ave Los Angeles Ca , on May 22nd.
Envision is to present a timeline or representation. Starting with our indigenous brothers and sisters and moving to latinx than to African American than to our AAPI brothers and sisters. Followed educational biases, housing discriminations and healthcare bias. Illustration of California's history and the inherent systemic racism.

What we do know:
1. The event will be taking place on May 8th at 9am
2. It is organized by the same people who organized the last rally
3. They aim to have these rallies in every state
4. San Diego is being discussed as a possible location for the California rally

May Day is Saturday, & we're terribly excited. It's been 2 years since we had one. A bunch of folks might not know about May Day. So welcome: May Day is one of the fun holidays. (A thread)

[redacted] · Apr 29

May Day is, legit, about as close to an Anarchist festival day as you get. It's got all the holiday traditions: you spend time with distant relatives, you sing the traditional songs, chant the chants. Someone might ceremonially break something.

[redacted] · 8h

May Day is an Anarchist celebration of solidarity.

A Brady list is composed of a group of officers who have exhibited conduct that would jeopardize a case if called as a witness.

Hard to be an officer if you can't testify in court. So being put on this list could end a cop's career. The key is getting them on a list.

11:34 PM · Apr 29, 2021 · Twitter for iPhone

[redacted]

It starts with accountability. Let's get Brady violators entered into the system. Defense attorneys, nationally, deserve to know if an officer has a history of bias, lying and serious misconduct.

The LAPD won't police themselves. A public, searchable Brady list is needed.

> [redacted] Apr 20
> I will continue to advocate for better training for officers, stronger accountability in use-of-force cases and an independent review of officer-involved shootings. Effective policing must be fair and just to enhance our collective safety. 5/6

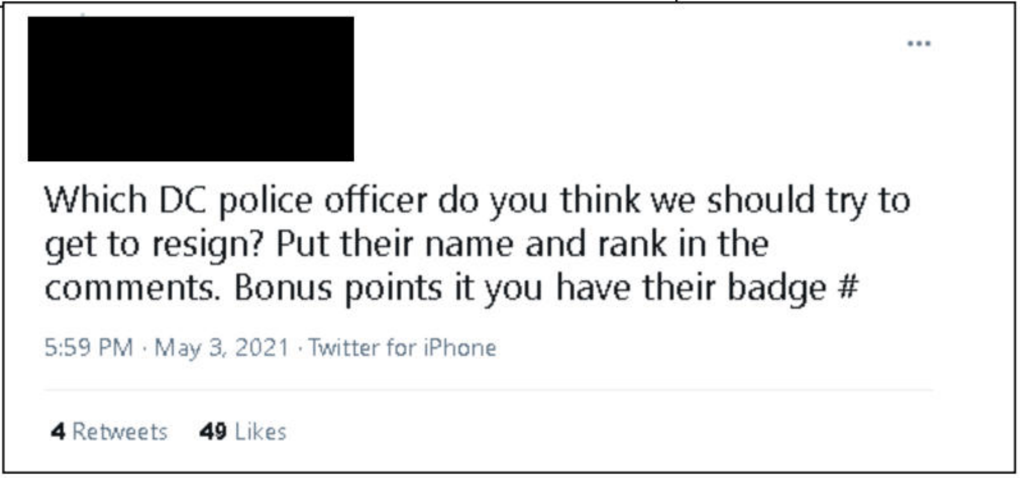
PRESS RELEASE

DC Police Union Statement on Attrition and Crime Surge

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
May 3, 2021
Contact: Gregg Pemberton, Chairman

In June of 2020, the DC Council passed legislation under the guise of "police reform" that has had the unintended consequences of negatively impacting police service, increasing crime in our most vulnerable communities, and causing officers to leave MPD at an alarming rate.

The DC Police Union made a public statement on June 8 which stated, "The outcome of the current language in the Bill will undoubtedly result in an exponential increase in crime and a mass exodus in personnel." While many Councilmembers scoffed at this assertion, in less than a year, both of these predictions have unfortunately come to pass.



[redacted]

Which DC police officer do you think we should try to get to resign? Put their name and rank in the comments. Bonus points it you have their badge #

We must also dismantle the Ethiopian state's ability to wage this war. One way is to cut into the state's biggest source of direct funding and foreign currency revenue: coffee. A major buyer around the globe is Starbucks. The corporation regularly engages in direct negotiations with the Ethiopian state, whose direct control of trademark licensing and access to markets puts millions into the government's coffers. Those in solidarity around the world must take action to cut off this flow while the genocide continues.

SUMMER OF DISTROISM

IN:

- Pretending to be other organizations
- Everything costs 25 cents now. Not free, "not pay-what-you-want." Everything costs exactly 25 cents now.
- Tabling with weapons, fireworks, spraypaint, narcan, local bands, sketchy zines you can't find online
- Tabling at events you weren't invited to, in parks, colleges, etc
- Actually reading the shit you distribute with your friends
- CRASS FONT
  AND PROMOTING INDISCRIMINATE HATRED OF ALL ROBOTS

OUT:

- Asking permission to print zines you like & table with them
- Tabling with books, academic 101 zines, email lists
- Thinking that you need to be a twitter distro or even have a name
- Tabling political events
- Ignoring the people who come up to check out the table
- Stapling zines wrong. Yeah, you heard me. You're fucking doing it wrong. Stop that. Enough.

Officers have concluded the operation at Beverly/Grove Drive. We determined this was a "swatting" incident which clearly tied up critical public safety resources, but due to the nature (an alleged shooting) had to be thoroughly investigated. We appreciated the public's patience.

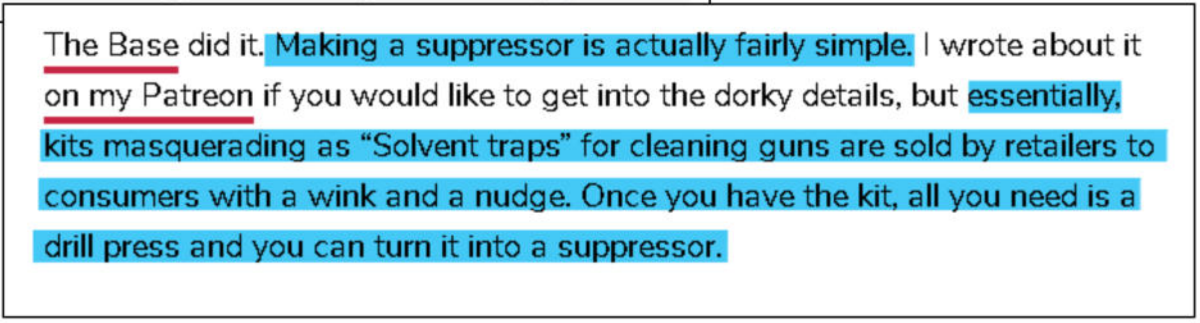
NEW from [redacted] breaks down the Inland Empire Nazi the feds just [redacted] ordering a silencer kit from [redacted]

[redacted]

FEDS NAB INLAND EMPIRE NAZI FOR ORDERING A SILENCER ONLI...

Brian Thibodeau tried to buy a kit for a silencer online. The feds found nazi memorobilia in his home.

[redacted]



The Base did it. Making a suppressor is actually fairly simple. I wrote about it on my Patreon if you would like to get into the dorky details, but essentially, kits masquerading as "Solvent traps" for cleaning guns are sold by retailers to consumers with a wink and a nudge. Once you have the kit, all you need is a drill press and you can turn it into a suppressor.

You can see on the map, that the Zim-Operated Volans was ready to enter the Port, drifted for a minute and moved on. That's almost certainly because the threat was real to them. LA is the last stop before they head back to Asia-port, they were routed.

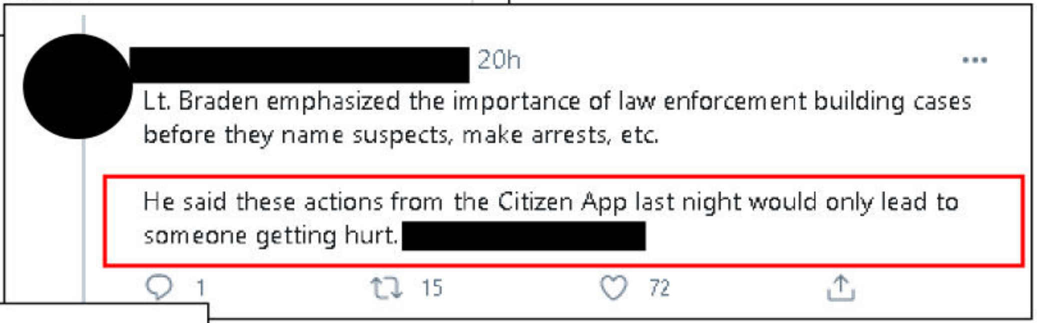
BREAKING: Sheriff's deputies found and briefly detained this man, Devin Hilton, around midnight last night, according to Lt. Jim Braden. They did not have evidence to charge him with a crime and let him go.

Braden calls the actions by Citizen app potentially "disastrous."

[redacted] · May 15

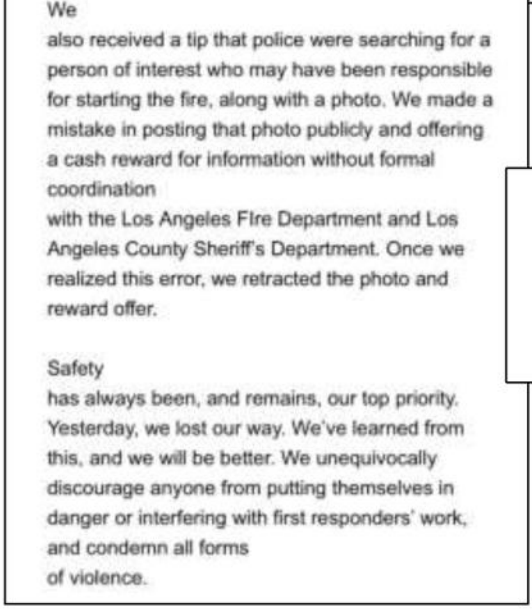
The Citizen app is currently encouraging users in Los Angeles to hunt down a person suspected of setting the Pacific Palisades brush fire. They are offering $30,000 to anyone who catches them.



[redacted] [redacted] 20h

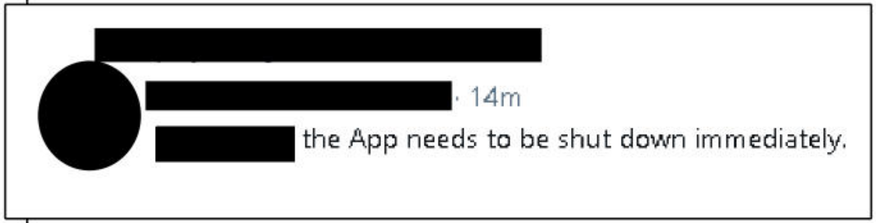
Lt. Braden emphasized the importance of law enforcement building cases before they name suspects, make arrests, etc.

He said these actions from the Citizen App last night would only lead to someone getting hurt. [redacted]



We also received a tip that police were searching for a person of interest who may have been responsible for starting the fire, along with a photo. We made a mistake in posting that photo publicly and offering a cash reward for information without formal coordination with the Los Angeles FIre Department and Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department. Once we realized this error, we retracted the photo and reward offer.

Safety has always been, and remains, our top priority. Yesterday, we lost our way. We've learned from this, and we will be better. We unequivocally discourage anyone from putting themselves in danger or interfering with first responders' work, and condemn all forms of violence.



[redacted]

[redacted] [redacted] · 14m

[redacted] the App needs to be shut down immediately.

Also not a hazard if the shield breaks. If a mirror breaks and comrades fall into the glass... 😬

Saw some in portland putting strips of reflective tape near the top of shields to help distort video recordings...

described as acts of ethnic cleansing and extermination.

Last week, in an act of revolutionary solidarity with autonomous Palestinian resistance, we started a fire at the Pratt & Whitney engine facility in Orange County, CA, completely destroying a fleet van and damaging the exterior of the building. For us, revolutionary solidarity can't mean mere words or symbolic gestures; it means putting our entire bodies into the struggle and Pratt & Whitney is a division of Raytheon Technologies, the fourth largest arms dealer in the world. Pratt & Whitney have deep ties to the Israeli defense industry. In 2015, Pratt & Whitney signed a 15 year contract with the Israeli Ministry of Defense, in support of the Israeli Air Force, designed to provide 100% daily propulsion readiness for the entire Israeli fleet of F-15 and F-16 aircraft. Pratt and Whitney also supplies the engines used in the Israeli Air Forces entire fleet of F-16 fighter jets. These same fighter jets are now being used to rain down all hell on Gaza.

LAPD arrested a community member this Thursday in Van Nuys. They continue displacing, attacking and arresting those who defend their spots.

We need to show solidarity and resist the violence they're inflicting on the houseless community by any means necessary. 🏴🖤 #WeKeepUsSafe
